NO. 54.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Roberts, of Deatsville, Nelson county, celebrated their golden wedding Saturday. Seven children have been born to this couple and they were all present at the celebration.

Miss Clydia Waddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waddle, was married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents to Rev. Stephen B. Lander, of Bloomfield. Rev. Tadlock, of Norma, and Rev. Vaughan, of this city, officiated.—Someset Journal.

The engagement of Miss Helen Berger, daughter of Alexander Berger, a prominent miller and Board of Trade man of Minneapolis Minn., and William Jennings Bryan, Jr., is admitted by Mr. Berger. Miss Berger and her mother are visiting in Lincoln, Neb. It is said the wedding may not take place for a year or longer.

A Few Figures.

There are 481 systems of shorthand. The best ostrich feathers bring $25 a pound.

The world's annual coffee crop is 700,000 tons.

Two peacocks a year become extinct in England.

Twelve marriages in every hundred each include a widow or widower.

The sweepings of London's chimneys make annually 50,000 tons of soot, which sells, as fertilizer, for $200,000.

In India, in the healthy neighborhood of Negapatam, living is so cheap that beef costs only three cents a pound, mutton two cents, chickens from two to five cents apiece, eggs four cents a dozen, butter five cents a pound and fruit and vegetables in the same remarkable proportion—as, for instance, pineapple 10 cents a dozen, and new potatoes five cents a peck.

Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accepted no other. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Pink Pain Tablets—Dr. Shoop's—stop Headache, womanly pains, any pain, anywhere, in 20 minutes sure. Formula on the 25c. box. Ask your druggist or doctor about this formula—it's fine. Penny's Drug Store.

Adorina's Fox

Is a handsome, large young Jersey Bull, descended from a long and unbroken line of the most noted bulls and cows on the island of Jersey England and America. His sire is one of the best bulls ever imported and his dam is a show cow that has given 95 pounds of rich milk in one day. If you believe "Like begets Like or the Likeness of some Ancestor" and have a strictly good cow, you should avail yourself of his service. He will be allowed to serve a limited number of approved, registered cows outside of our own herd this year, for a fee of $5 each. Make engagement before sending cow to be bred. REGISTERED & OFFICIAL. Telephone 30. Stanford, Ky.

Blue Grass Farm For Sale!

I desire to sell privately my splendid Blue Grass Farm of 205 acres, situated in the West End of Lincoln county, one mile North of McKinney. Farm lies on splendid pike as well as on the Q. & C. Railroad. Is 5 miles from Hustonville and 8 miles from Stanford, the county seat. Farm is well improved and has all necessary buildings. Splendidly fenced and an abundance of water. The forest fires which have been devastating sections of Minnesota have been checked. The wind has subsided and for the present there is no fear of further serious damage. Gov. Johnson has issued a proclamation to the people of Minnesota asking assistance for the fire sufferers.

Alonzo Kelley, a lad 15 years old, made a confession at Louisa in which he admitted that in company with John Sprouse they set fire to the house of Charles Cooper on the night of August 28. During the burning of the house two children were cremated and Charles Cooper was fatally burned. Mrs. Cooper and another child were disfigured for life.

A Paying Investment.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave. Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and Spring. Last Winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This Winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

The officers had watched the preparations for days in the hope of catching outside accomplices, but had to stop operations before they could do so or allow the prisoners a good opportunity to escape.

How to get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store 50c.

Judge Birkhead overruled the motion of the attorneys for a change of venue in the case of T. S. Anderson, an alleged bank-wrecker at Owensboro. Special Judge John S. Kelly arrived at Owensboro and opened court to hear the cases of the Parrish brothers, charged with the same offense as Anderson. The attorneys for the Parrish brothers also applied for a change of venue to another county outside of the Sixth judicial district.

A Danville special says: Fayette Jones and Henry Davis were arrested at Parkville on the charge of the murder of Hugh Daugherty, at Pineville, July 11. Jones and Davis came to Parkville several weeks ago and were leaders at Sunday-school and prayer meetings. Both seemed to have plenty of money and spent it freely. Daugherty, a prominent young man, was killed during the progress of a dance at Pineville and the officers have been working on the case. Detective Montgomery made the arrests and will get the $400 reward offered by the Governor.

AFTER an investigation into the evidence and hearing the statements of interested persons on each side, Gov. Cox has decided to take no action in the application for a pardon for R. E. Lee Sims, convicted in Lincoln county and sentenced to the penitentiary for eight years for the killing of John R. Farris. Gov. Cox does not reject the application for a pardon, nor does he grant it, but simply leaves the case in statu quo. The Sims case has attracted a great deal of attention here on account of the fact that he is the only Knight Templar in the penitentiary and is prominently connected. For more than a week friends of Sims have been here trying to prevail on the acting governor to pardon Sims. Friends of the dead man were also here protesting against the pardon and the case has caused a great deal of talk here.—Frankfort dispatch to Courier Journal.

A pleasing, good, high grade, truly flavored amber colored cup of coffee can be had—and without the real Coffee danger, or damage to health—by simply using Dr. Shoop's new substitute, called "Health Coffee." Pure, wholesome, toasted cereals, malt, nuts, etc., make Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee both healthful and satisfying. No 20 to 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. If served as coffee, it's taste will even trick an expert. Test it and see. Penny's Drug Store.
